

ResVez, Inc. Signs National Distribution Deals for Resveratrol WINETIME Bar and Capital Window

Rancho Santa Fe -- July 14, 2010 / (<http://www.myprgenie.com>) -- ResVez, Inc., creator of the innovative gourmet nutrition bar, the WineTime Bar, has announced distribution deals through several national chains. At the same time the Rancho Santa Fe, Calif., company has contracted with the business consulting firm, Capital Window, to finalize ResVez's investment marketing package as it goes to raise growth capital.

The patent-pending WineTime Bar (www.winetimebar.com) is the first and only gourmet nutrition bar containing the antioxidant resveratrol, acclaimed for its heart healthy and anti-aging properties. Resveratrol is found in the skin of red grapes and each WineTime Bar contains more resveratrol than 50 glasses of red wine.

Since its launch last December, the rich dark chocolate bar, enhanced with dates and almonds and seven extra super fruits, has enjoyed extremely positive reviews in both the trade press and popular media. Recently, the company secured distribution with four of the top distributors in the country and anticipates availability in the near future through BevMo, Vitamin Shoppe, HEB Grocery, Walgreens.com, and GNC (Canada).

Malcolm Nicholl, ResVez President and CEO, said, "The bar is a true healthy indulgence. It is at the convergence of the nutrition market and the gourmet chocolate market. It is equally at home on the shelves of health food stores, specialty food stores, wine stores, groceries, and drugstores. Many health professionals are also recommending the bar. As the company needs additional capital to handle our growth, we identified Capital Window as the best company to help structure our business presentation and investment plan."

Thomas Carter, Capital Window CEO, said, "The ResVez product line and business model is an exciting breakthrough concept that Capital Window fully understands and is thrilled to represent. There is a proven demand for cutting-edge functional food bars such as The WineTime Bar and we see a huge opportunity. The company has an extraordinary product development portfolio and our goal is to facilitate the expansion of ResVez on an even greater scale."

Capital Window and ResVez have been working together and plan to reach out to their networks of qualified investors over the next six to eight weeks.
